To whom it may concern:

As the health landscape has changed and continues to be fluid throughout the U.S., many cities and states are under orders to “Shelter in Place” or “Stay at Home” for varying time frames. This is to inform you that Rusken Packaging will continue to stay open because it falls within the definition of an “Essential Business or Operation” as described in federal and state language and meets the Department of Homeland Security’s guidelines regarding an “Essential Critical Infrastructure.”

Our intent is to continue operating, in keeping with our understanding of applicable law and the guidance provided by public health authorities, for as long as we are permitted to do so.

If you have questions about this communication, please reach out to your primary points of contacts.
